Love in Sacred Scriptures

When you see or hear the word Love, what immediately comes to mind? I believe, for most of us, we think of God. Why? Because God is the very definition of love, as St. John says in 1Jn 4: 16, that "God is love." Family members, close friends, and neighbors also come to mind when we think of love.

We all know that this big word, Love, has a variety of meanings which have been expressed in song, poetry, theatre, and in movies during the past centuries. But this weekend's Gospel calls us to listen to what Jesus has to say about love.

When Jesus was asked by the scholar: "Which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it. You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." (Mt 22: 36-39) Jesus is answering the question by quoting both Old Testament Scriptures Deuteronomy 6: 5 and Leviticus 19: 18.

Very simply, we need to ask: How are we doing in living this command? Are we loving God with all our heart by spending time in prayer everyday? Are we loving God by believing that God loves us, created us, and wants all that is good for us? Are we loving God by accepting His Will and Plan for our lives? Are we reading the Bible and thinking good thoughts about God and neighbors?

Next, we can ask: Are we loving our neighbors by respecting them, helping them when we are called upon, and praying for them? Do we see God in their life? Finally, do we take care of ourselves? Are we loving ourselves enough with proper nourishment, rest, exercise, and developing our learning capacity and talents. Answer these questions this week.

The following is a Sacred Scripture on Love...

"Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, love is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth.. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails." (1 Corinthians 13: 4-8)

God Bless,
Father Mark

I share with you the conclusion of the Liturgy of Hours Morning Prayer. In the October 4th bulletin, I printed the Cantic of Zechariah, which are the words that Zechariah, the father of John the Baptist, had prayed eight days after John's birth, concerning his son to be "the prophet of the Most High...going before the Lord to prepare His Ways." (Luke 1: 76)

This part of the Morning Prayer reminds us each morning, as we pray these words, that Jesus is our Lord and Savior, and we need to prepare ourselves to follow Him as we begin our day.

The conclusion of the Morning Prayer involves Intercessory Prayer, the Lord's Prayer, and a final blessing by the person who leads the prayers.

I share this with you, and I encourage each of you, to read the Liturgy of Hours by going online and downloading the Divine Office app, in audio, and the Laudate app, which is in print, to read silently. If you need help to get these apps, please let me know. In getting these apps, you will be able to pray the Liturgy of Hours Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer every day. Blessings on all of you this week!
